Tactics of the Lawless: Series Overview

The first part of the Covenant People's Ministry 'Tactics Series' giving a total overview of each of the remaining three sections.

Tactics of the Lawless One: Satan's Reality

A lengthy investigation into Satan himself covering fallen angels, demons, temptations, tares, scoffers and various antichrists.

Tactics of the Lawless Children: Iniquitous Men

Tactics of the Lawless Children is the study of four 'bad guys' of the Holy Bible -- Cain, Balaam, Judas Iscariot and Simon Magus.

Tactics of the Lawless Whores: Impious Women

Tactics of the Lawless Whores is the study of four 'bad girls' of the Holy Bible -- Eve, Jezebel, Rahab the harlot and Delilah of Sorek.

The Devices of the Lawless Almanac is compiled for the internet and produced by Covenant People's Ministry. All materials contained within this e-book are freely distributable but we humbly request that if you review or quote this material that CPM be contacted and made aware. # tactics of the lawless: series overview

Good day -- today's subject is Tactics of the Lawless and I hope to take a deeper look at some of the strategies that antinomians use to promote lawlessness or attack honest Christians that seek to follow Yahweh's perfect Law. Over in 1st Timothy 2:3-4 we're taught by Paul; "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God." This 'falling away' is considered the apostasy and we clearly live in those days when so many -- especially among the Christian ranks -- seek to do away with Jesus' eternal and unchanging Laws.

My friends, Yahweh never changes (Malachi 3:16) and Jesus warned us in John 14:6; "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me" meaning that any other person claiming to offer the 'way, truth or life' is an obvious false prophet and antichrist by Biblical definition. Concerning the apostasy, the Master also taught us; "Many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity [lawlessness] shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved (Matthew 24:11-13)." It's my hope that this particular study will help other Christians to "earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints (Jude 1:3)" and help us all to never fall aside to these 'new doctrines.'

Paul says in 1 Timothy 4:1-2; "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times [apostasy] some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron." These so-called 'doctrines of devils' would obviously seek to protect Satan and his progeny so many of these new 'educated thought processes' saying that Satan is not a literal being or that angels are 'just messengers' should be considered as fairly obvious attacks against the unchanging God of Israel. It's my wish that this four-part series will allow us all to "Put on the whole armour of God, that [we] may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. And having done all, to stand (Ephesians 6:11, 13)."

(One Word:)

The most-used maneuver by the enemy is to 'take away or add to' the already perfect Word of Yahweh. "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God (John 1:1)" so the creator Jesus is that living Word (Revelation 19:13), therefore any attack on the integrity of the pure text could be considered an attack on God Himself. Examples of 'adding to or taking away' can be seen by Lucifer throughout the whole of scripture starting in the third chapter of Genesis when the serpent, or "whispering magick enchanter (Strong's #H5172)," says to Eve "Yea, hath God said?" casting doubt on the infallibility of Yahweh's Word. When Satan 'tempted' Jesus in the wilderness he used this tactic.

When explaining the parable of the sower, Jesus Christ taught; "Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.” We’re also warned in Revelation 22:18-19; “For I [Jesus] testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.” It should go without saying that Christians should be divided against those who teach doctrine not found in the Bible.

Let’s take a look at who does and doesn’t make it into Yahweh’s Kingdom in the verses just above those, let’s read verses 13-15; “I [Jesus] am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.” Break this verse down -- notice that Jesus claims to be the ‘Alpha and Omega’ which further proves He is the Word from start to finish, or ‘A to Z.’ Next, we see that those who make it are the ones who ‘do’ the commandments of Yahweh just like He taught in Matthew 7:21; “Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.” Also take note that outside the Kingdom are “whosoever loveth and maketh a lie” meaning that nobody will be able to claim they were “tricked” by any individual or universal church. Sadly, people flock to what they love and a majority of sheeple will seek to justify their ‘new doctrine of devils’ outside the Word or in a bastardized version of the Bible.

Indeed, the world is filled with literally millions of so-called ‘Bibles’ but not every book claiming the title is the Word of God as we briefly covered in New American Standard: Corrupt, Period. The quickest way of subverting people’s minds into believing a lie is to present an ‘edited’ version of the Word usually with about 10% of the content removed, usually from the source manuscripts themselves. This is one of the many faces of ‘taking away’ the Word and without question hundreds of cults have sprung up this through this ploy while other false prophets care less and simply rewrite the Bible to suit their agenda. Of course these bogus Bibles are billed as “the most accurate translation ever” by those who seek to whitewash the ever-living Word of Yahweh.

“Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God” so let’s all do our parts to seek every Word that was spoken. There are many good translations out there but we must use discernment in order to pick them out for ourselves. Never allow any man to tell you that it’s up to a building or particular organization to interpret the scriptures for you, this is another face of ‘taking away’ the Word. Christians are commanded to “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. [And to] shun profane vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness (2 Timothy 2:15-16).”

(One Baptism:)

Turn with me to Ephesians 4:4-5 where Paul says; “There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.” Jesus taught throughout His entire ministry that he was ‘one’ with Yahweh like this important verse in Mark 12:29; “The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord.” A sure-fire sign of a false prophet is he will seek to destroy this ‘oneness’ under several masks like teaching devilish doctrines like Jesus isn’t Yahweh, the Word isn’t perfect or baptism isn’t essential. It’s a commandment that can also be found in Deuteronomy 6:4; “Hear, O Israel: Yahweh our God is one Yahweh.”

The reason many evil people like to teach against baptism by water for remission of sins is because they already know that they aren’t going to make it into the Kingdom so they will do all they can to keep others from being baptized. Jesus teaches us in Mark 16:16; “He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned” so we should be able to render a harsh rebuke against those that would teach against this essential step of salvation.

When the men of Israel asked what to do to be ‘saved’ in Acts 2:37, Peter replies; “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” Without baptism for remission of sins, the unfortunate believer is left unclean and unable to partake of the Holy Spirit’s guidance which is required to unlock scripture, tap into Christian ‘power’ and build spiritual discernment just to name a few. This aspect is apparent in Jesus’ own actions when after He was baptized by John the Immerser “And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him (Mark 1:10)” as recorded in all four Gospels. We should also take notice that Jesus did this to begin His own ministry and “Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, Being forty days tempted of the devil (Luke 4:1-2).” We need to be baptized for both the Holy Spirit and the ability to ‘rightly divide the word of truth’ like Jesus to use the sword, or the Word of Yahweh.

Before going any further, we should examine two facts; First off, Jesus Himself was baptized and He is our perfect example to follow so who but the antichrist would teach against it? Next, baptism is by water as the Bible plainly states and the word baptize, taken from the non-translated Greek baptizō (pronounced baptid’-zo) has only one meaning; “to make whelmed (that is, fully wet) or washed (Strong’s #G907).” Oh, the enemy will come up with many justifications like comparing ‘the water’ to womb fluids, but let me ask right now -- is it worth your place in the Kingdom to merely “chance it?”

(One Law:)

Following on the heels of ‘taking away’ both the Word and crucial baptism are those sham prophets that like to teach against the eternal Law of Yahweh the Law-Giver. The enemy will do all they can to keep you as an ‘unclean vessel’ and sin is what separates us from Yahweh being “a transgression of the Law” as we can read in 1 John 3:4; “Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.” The unchanging food laws are usually where evil men will start sowing their lawlessness in the hopes that well-meaning Christians will eat swine or buzzard in order to defile themselves. Ironically, most of the false prophets who promote the eating of unclean foods are also the ones who abstain from it themselves while pushing that immoral agenda. The Law is essential, it’s what we’re judged against by the ‘living Word’ so we must always contrast man’s teachings with that of the Bible and when they don’t correlate we have to choose the scriptures, period.

Jesus taught “Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil [perfect]. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled (Matthew 5:17-18). Do those sound like the words of a Savior who ‘abolished the Law of Yahweh? The strange thing is that Jesus taught the Law, carried a script of Deuteronomy, continually battled against the scribes and Pharisees who sought to replace the Mosaic Law yet the tireless snakes love to push Biblical lawlessness on the children of God.

In Deuteronomy 7:9-10 we’re taught; “Know therefore that Yahweh thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations; And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face.” Also, over in Ecclesiastes 12:13 we learn; “Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man” so anyone that would teach against the Law of Yahweh is seeking to promote the kingdom of ‘the lawless one’ or ‘the prince of this world (John 12:31).’ The ‘whole duty’ of man is to fear [reverence] Yahweh and keep His eternal Law.

Jesus plainly taught “If ye love me, keep my commandments” in John 14:15 among other places so naturally the only way the serpent enemy can support their lawless agenda is to teach the erroneous doctrine that Jesus isn’t God. This is the very aspect that defines them as antichrist according to the four Biblical definitions of the very word yet so many ‘money changers’ love to say that ‘all gods are one’ or that Jesus Christ is just a ‘good man’ or ‘excellent prophet.’ The Word of God teaches that there is only one God and His name is Jesus or Emmanuel (God with us) and that “by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence (Colossians 1:16-18).”

Thankfully, we’re saved by grace (Ephesians 2:8) but the Law given by Yahweh is in a sense the only real glimpse of the ‘morality’ of Yahweh and we must always strive to please our Father. In Leviticus 11:14 it states; “For I am Yahweh your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy” so let’s do all we can to follow His commands.

(One God:)

Jesus taught in both the Old and New Testaments that Israel was to have only one God and to only worship Him. For example, under the old covenant we're taught; "Thou shalt have no other gods before me (Exodus 20:2)" and Christ taught; "The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment (Mark 12:29-30)." Considered the first commandment above all others, serving any other God outside of the Creator Jesus is a very serious offense so naturally the serpentine enemy loves to do all they can to rip apart the Godhead.

To state it in the simplest terms, Jesus is "God manifest in the flesh (1 Timothy 3:16)" or "God with us (Matthew 1:23)" and again; "By him were all things created (Colossians 1:16)." The Bible is very clear about Jesus being Yahweh and any honest student should have no problems noticing this important fact when reading the scriptures, it's when man starts inserting his own doctrines or faulty traditions that 'confusion' sets in and the first commandment starts being violated. One God is just that -- one.

Beware of people who might teach that Jesus wasn't equal with the Father or not God, chances are they will also be found guilty of the numerous offenses we've already discussed like attacking the perfect Word, essential baptism or eternal Law. Most of these snakes will say something along the lines of "Jesus was a great man, but not the Messiah" or they'll just call Him a 'simple prophet' equating Him on the same level as Isaiah or Jeremiah. Jesus said; "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him (John 14:6-7)." How it is that many lukewarm Christians intend to 'slide past' Jesus and have access to another God or simply refuse to pray 'in Jesus' name' is beyond me -- Jesus is the only God for Israel.

There is no confusion about the matter, both covenants were made with Israel as the Bible teaches; "Behold, the days come, saith Yahweh, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah (Jeremiah 31:31)." It's just another 'tactic of the lawless' to suggest that the Old Testament is now 'done away' because not one covenant made between God and Israel has ever been disannulled. Whether it be the Adamic and Noahic Covenants or the Abrahamic and New Covenants, not one of these eternal promises has ever been 'done away' with by God.

Now that we've covered that serving only Yahweh is considered the 'first' commandment, it should be rather obvious why many false prophets like to teach against this aspect -- it can keep you from the very Kingdom they won't be in. If you require more scriptural proofs that "Jesus Christ [is] the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever (Hebrews 13:8)" be sure to read Jesus, Yahweh or Not? or Jesus, God or Not? available at our website. This is an extremely important issue because we can't call ourselves Christians unless it's Christ that is our Savior and we can serve only Him.

My intention at this point in the sermon will be to give you an overview of the following three studies that complete the entire CPM: Tactics Series and suggest that you order the Deluxe 2 CD Edition that we recently released. We must be wise to the devices of the enemy so each of the remaining articles have a specific focus on a Biblical individual:

Tactics of the Lawless One deals with the topic of Satan, explains his creation and we look at detrimental new 'doctrine of devils' that seek to protect the lawless one by explaining away his existence. We look at the many commandments that tell us to study the scriptures and look a little deeper at demons and angels like the one that appeared to Balaam's ass. An in-depth examination of the many names of Satan, the so-called 'temptation' of Christ and the parable of the tares is included.

Tactics of the Lawless Children goes deeper into the characters of four wicked men beginning with Cain and his bastard seedline. We then analyze some of the methods of the false prophet Balaam, the betraying Judas Iscariot and first 'pope' Simon Magus. These men are all examples of what our kinswoman shouldn't look for in a husband.

Tactics of the Lawless Whores inspects the characters of four wicked women starting with the beguiled Eve. This informative sermon covers the harlot Rahab, the trampled Jezebel and informant Delilah. This should help our male brethren to arm themselves against 'loose women' and prove that there is "no new thing under the sun."

Like always, I pray that Jesus Christ gets the honor from these studies and that His name is glorified through this ministry! If you'd like to help Covenant People's Ministry to grow than please remember us in your prayers! Amen.

satanel: the rise and fall of the adversary

Library of Congress Control Number: 2005908761

This exhaustive guide on Satan and his seedline is loosely based upon numerous sermons found at the CPM website but it blatantly boasts over 75% new content. This medium book is surprisingly expansive containing an thorough scripture index listing the hundreds of passages taken from the Authorized, Ferrar Fenton and Amplified Bibles. Pre-orders are being taken now!

An online version of Satanel will be launching on June 6th, 2006 (aka: 666) in a separate sub domain at CPM online for reasons covered within the book itself so an "e-book style" release (similar to our online newsletter) is also planned for early 2007.

Rest assured, this title is coming soon from Covenant People's Books and everyone who pre-orders this book will receive an MP3 disc for their generous support. Orders ship automatically when Satanel is finally completed.

tactics of the lawless one: satan's reality

This evening's topic is called Tactics of the Lawless One and I hope to look a little deeper into the character of Satan and cover some of the verses that many will use to say I'm wrong in bringing this type of study. A new trend that has recently divided the Christian movement is the so-called 'illuminated thought' that Lucifer doesn't really exist and all over the country well-meaning Christians are falling aside to these false teachings as if there's something to gain in thinking this way.

There are many false prophets out there today teaching this detrimental hypothesis even calling themselves 'identity' or 'separatist' so we must always refer back to our beloved scriptures and 'test the spirits.' Many of the 'clicks' that preach against the Law that Jesus taught so perfectly also attack many other essential steps to salvation like denying baptism by immersion, refusing to acknowledge Jesus as God and even attacking the Word itself and calling it fallible.

This evening I plan to discuss some of the false prophet's methods and during this study I'll also be asking you who exactly is to gain from such false teachings. Sadly, many believers have been caught up in the deception that Satan is not real and as such throw out the Biblical teaching of angels and numerous other doctrines, some even have released their own versions of the Bible as if the past four hundred years of Christianity was wrong -- let's not be caught in their deception.

Indeed, this will be a study that will make the devils squirm but the 'sum total' of the Word is what matters, not the traditions of men. Oddly, this 'new belief' fits right in with scripture and I'll prove that these teachers are intentionally leading their congregations right into the lap of the deceiver. I won't call out any specific names in this study but I'm sure you might be aware of who I'm talking about if you're familiar with these 'latter-day' doctrines and who exactly is pushing them.

(Admonitions:)

There are several commandments in the New Testament that we need to look at before we begin. Turn with me to the 1st epistle of John and we'll read starting at the beginning of chapter 4; "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error."

The smallest Bible ever printed was the Mite Bible, published in 1896 by Oxford University Press?

Its page size was approximately 4.06cm by 2.81cm. The book was 900 pages long and 1.25cm thick.

Did You Know?

There are 8,674 different Hebrew words in the Bible, 5,624 different Greek words, and 12,143 different English words in the King James Version?

These passage re-affirm that there are false prophets in the world today like we also discover in 2 Peter 2:1; “There were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.” These two sections of scripture give us a vivid portrait of the false teacher -- they deny that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, speak for the world and the world understands them, are of the ‘spirit of error’ and bring in damnable heresies or new doctrines that are foreign to the Word of Yahweh.

Let’s look at another admonition as found in 2 Timothy 2:15-16; “Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. But shun profane vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.” This commandment isn’t hard to understand. We must turn to our Bibles because it is truth (John 17:17) and ‘rightly divide’ that Word of truth. This means that we must weigh all matters and doctrines against the Word, when there’s more evidence that supports the theory or belief than it must be counted as doctrine based on ‘Biblical evidence.’

2nd Peter 1:20 teaches us; “Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation” and over in 2nd Timothy 3:16-17 we’re told; “All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.”

So, we know that there’s no ‘private interpretation’ in the Bible and if it’s there it must be truth, period. We also can deduct that the scripture is “profitable for doctrine” and “instruction in righteousness” so Biblical facts must be considered in all things. This is in keeping with Yahweh’s commandment in Deuteronomy 11:18; “Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.”

We will soon discover that these same false prophets teach against the Bible or the ‘sum total’ found within its pages. If there’s thirty proof texts that prove a fact or theory, these ‘lower-case gods’ would rather debate those same thirty verses rather than trust in two or three witnesses to the fact that it’s Biblical. I recently read an embarrassing book that attempted to dismiss the numerous ‘seedline’ scriptures all while offering no answers itself. This author went on to attack over seven different pastors by name as if he had all truth and was wiser than they and by the end I walked away from that same book with a strengthened belief in the ‘seedline theory’ due to the sheer number of proofs this author attempted to write off. I might add that this same author did a rather poor job is dismissing anything but his credibility and rather tried to push the blame off on the jews as if they had anything to benefit by this particular teaching. Let me ask right now -- Who is to gain from the train of thought that there are not literal ‘children of the devil (1 John 3:10)’ as even Jesus taught? That’s right, only the devil’s children could benefit from such blasphemy so what does this teaching hurt?

(Angels:)

Those that like to pretend that Satan isn't a factual entity have a hard time doing so with the Bible so they usually resort to other means like saying there's no such things as angels. Satan is considered a 'fallen' angel so you can't have one false teaching without the other so fictitious prophets tend to dismiss both. They like to point out that angel really means 'messenger' as if that disproves their existence but I'd like to shatter that myth right now before getting to Lucifer himself. Let's look at a few miracles these so-called 'men' took part in:

We read in Numbers 22:21-31; "Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab. And God's anger was kindled because he went: and the angel of Yahweh stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him. And the ass saw the angel of Yahweh standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass, to turn her into the way. But the angel of Yahweh stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side. And when the ass saw the angel of Yahweh, she thrust herself unto the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he smote her again. And the angel of Yahweh went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. And when the ass saw the angel of Yahweh, she fell down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staff. And Yahweh opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times? And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee. And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay. Then Yahweh opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of Yahweh standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face."

Notice that Yahweh was angry with Balaam because he was out to curse the Israelites and instead sent an 'angel of Yahweh' against him? Those that teach against angels will say that this 'messenger' was just a man but I ask does any "man" have the ability to make a donkey speak and at the same be visible to animals and not humans? I'll even cover a few more examples just to drive home the lunacy of this false teaching which is also considered 'doctrines of devils' in scripture -- these 'theories' only promote Satan and his children making them his false doctrines. Read Jude 1:11; "Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Korah." The sad thing is that even Balaam learned that angels are real the hard way but many so-called 'scholars' today would have you to think otherwise.

Let's read more about angels in Acts 5:17-23; "The high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison. But the angel of Yahweh by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life. And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him,

But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told, Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.”

Maybe this was just an escape artist that had the ability to release the captives from a fully-staffed prison without anyone noticing? That’s what those who teach against angels would have you to think -- let’s read another passage that even further shatters this ‘new doctrine’ like this one in Acts 12:5-9; “Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And, behold, the angel of Yahweh came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.”

Hard-hearted Christians love to argue about this verse defending their positions that this angel was just a man. Notice that this so-called ‘man’ was able to release Peter from between two soldiers on both sides of him without them noticing? Notice how the angel was illuminated and “shined light in the prison” and Peter felt as if he was seeing a “vision?” The next time somebody attempts to tell you that these are common men, remind them that they’re slandering the very teachings of scripture. Most times these same false prophets bring up the fact that angel, taken from the Greek word aggelos (pronounced ang’-el-os) means “messenger (Strong’s #G32)” as if this proves they were men but if you mention that Emmanuel means “God with us (Matthew 1:23)” they will debate for hours trying to say Jesus wasn’t Yahweh. Again, the first definition of ‘antichrist’ is “every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh” which is just another way of saying he’s not God.

Speaking of Jesus, when He was hanging on the cross “there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him (Luke 22:43).” How could this not be an angelic being? Indeed, only those that would want to be God would teach that men had access to the very heavens themselves and could strengthen our perfect Messiah. What blasphemy!

Keep in mind that those who teach against angels must come up with their own definition of ‘cherubim’ as well. Over in Genesis 3:24 we discover; “So he drove out the man [Adam]; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.” So, I guess this was just a man who was placed as a guardian in Eden to keep the first man Adam from returning or did Yahweh just use a sixth-day creation? What’s most amazing is that I would even have to present a study like this one in this day and age but sadly a lot of Christians have “studied themselves retarded” so I feel these scriptural proofs are necessary to resist the devil so he will flee from us (James 4:7). Another question -- who has the most to gain by teaching there is not literal angels that can work miracles on earth? Once again, the answer is the devil's children or Lucifer himself that would benefit from such nonsensical teachings. What does this particular teaching hurt?

(Devils:)

"The great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him (Revelation 12:8)."

The first tactic of the truly programmed is to throw guilt on anyone who dare teach about Lucifer using the first commandment to support their claims. In Exodus 20:3 it reads "Thou shalt have no other gods before me" and to them just mentioning the name of the deceiver is 'having another God.' The sad thing is they also forget to read on where it says "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them" in the next few verses that prove we must 'bow ourselves down to' these false gods in order for it to be a violation. First things first -- being 'aware' of Satan as we're commanded in the scriptures isn't the same thing as worshipping or 'having' other gods before Almighty Yahweh -- it's called being wiser than serpents.

Here's a verse; "Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour (1 Peter 5:8)." Here's another; "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you (James 4:7)." Yet another; "In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will (2 Timothy 2:25-26)." These are just a few singular descriptions of Satan, the enemy.

Just like with angels these same false prophets point out that 'devil' transliterated in the scriptures from the Greek word diabolos really means "false accuser" as the Strong's Concordance suggests so to them this means there's no literal Satan. What does the Strong's really say? It defines diabolos as "a traducer; specifically Satan (compare [H7854]): - false accuser, devil, slanderer (Strong's #G1228)." Notice how they take the lesser meaning to support their false claims? It's a specific word for Lucifer that means 'traducer.' It's taken from the Hebrew #H7854 which is śātan (pronounced saw-tawn) which means "an opponent; especially (with the article prefixed) Satan, the arch enemy of good: - adversary." Not too surprising is this is the very same entity that appeared to Eve in the Garden of Eden, no wonder the 'non-seedliners' love to dismiss these verses!

Turn with me over to the book of Isaiah, chapter 14 and we'll read verse 12; "How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!" This is the only place in our scriptures where the name Lucifer appears and it's the 'noun masculine' name of heylel (pronounced hay-lale) that literally means "The morning star

(in the sense of brightness): - lucifer (Strong's #H1966).” Again -- here we have a definite name and Brown-Driver-Briggs' Hebrew Definitions explains it this way; “shining one, morning star, Lucifer, the king of Babylon and Satan.” How anyone could teach that a fallen cherub is simply a man is beyond me.

Over in Job we read more about Lucifer; “Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh, and Satan came also among them. And Yahweh said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered Yahweh, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it (Job 1:6-7).”

Here we have a separate entity from the other ‘sons of God’ which are without a doubt angels. Notice that this creature was estranged from Yahweh so he’s asked by Him “whence comest thou?” to which Lucifer answers “going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.” Skip down to the 12th verse; “And Yahweh said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of Yahweh.” Those familiar with the account are aware that Satan sent all manner of evil on Job but he didn’t succeed in breaking him so Yahweh blessed Job many times over. For now, focus on the specific ‘powers’ that were granted to this fallen angel and I’ll show you who the ‘prince of this world’ is:

Jesus taught about Satan; “Now shall the prince of this world be cast out (John 12:31)” and “The prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me (John 14:30)” and “The prince of this world is judged (John 16:11).” So saying that Lucifer is the ‘prince’ or ‘god’ of this world is very scriptural because we also read in 2nd Corinthians 4:3-4; “But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.” Indeed, Satan has many names but they’re all specific towards his character, not of a powerless man.

Before moving on to Jesus’ dealing with the specific entity of Satan we should quickly re-cap. From the scriptures so far we have established that Satan is a specific adversary to Yahweh and his name is heylel or Lucifer. He was cast down from heaven and was even granted certain powers of destruction from Yahweh and most are aware that we were given power over him due to our Savior’s sacrifice. Here’s another question -- who has the most to gain by teaching there is not a literal ‘accuser’ or enemy of Yahweh and instead it’s mankind that has such evil powers? I think you’re starting to notice a trend here -- once again the answer would be Satan and his children that would benefit from such non-scriptural filth. What does this particular teaching hurt? Frankly speaking, I’d rather surround myself with trying Christians who believe that Satan is real than those that think they’re the devil, wouldn’t you?

(Temptations:)

“There came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness. And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him (Mark 1:11-13).”

There are two lengthy accounts of the so-called ‘temptation’ of Jesus in our scriptures and they’re found in Matthew 4:1-11 and Luke 4:1-13. Those that like to dismiss the devil usually miss the Biblical truth that Jesus is Yahweh because “God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man (James 1:13).” You will usually find that most who maintain that there is no devil also will refuse to acknowledge Jesus as Lord or respect His position in the Godhead. Let’s look deeper into Satan’s attempts to tempt our Savior who dealt with his attacks using the Word of Yahweh and also see how the Ferrar Fenton Bible renders Luke 4:1-13:

“Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, went away from the Jordan, and was carried by the Spirit into the desert, to be tried under the Devil for forty days. And He ate nothing during that time; but on their completion He at last was hungry. The Devil then said to Him, “If You are a Son of God, command this stone, so that it may become a loaf.” In reply to him, however, Jesus said, It is written, man shall not live upon bread alone, but by every decree of God (Luke 4:1-4 ffb).”

Here we see that the recently-baptized Jesus left John the Immerser at the Jordan river and was “full of the Holy Spirit.” This gift of the Holy Spirit was not just simply because He was “God manifest in the flesh” but the evidence of a proper baptism for we read in Acts 2:28; “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” Jesus was our perfect example to follow and He was baptized to “receive the gift of the Holy Ghost” as we must also do to allow that same Spirit in us. We can also notice that our Savior had just finished fasting so Satan comes to Him while in this weakened state and doesn’t offer Him food but asks for a sign. Jesus replies by quoting Deuteronomy 8:3 and using that verse in its proper context.

“Then taking Him up a high mountain, he pointed out to Him in a second of time all the surrounding kingdoms; and the Devil said to Him “I will give you all this power, and the splendour of them; for it has been entrusted to me, and I can give it to whoever I will. If you, therefore, will pay homage before me, they shall be Yours.” “Begone from Me, Enemy!” Jesus replied; “for it is written, You shall kneel to your Lord God, and worship Him alone (Luke 4:5-8 ffb).”

A little higher up the hill Satan tells Jesus that he would give Him all the earthly kingdoms because he had been given dominion over them by Yahweh. He continues to say that he can give those kingdoms and powers to ‘whoever’ he wishes and would offer them to the Messiah if He would only bow down and worship him. After a sharp rebuke Jesus again uses scripture against the enemy by quoting Exodus 34:14; “For thou shalt worship no other god: for Yahweh, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.” It’s obvious in these accounts that this is not a simple ‘man’ tempting Jesus but instead an unnatural being with supernatural powers.

“He then carried Him to Jerusalem, and placed Him upon the battlement of the temple, and said to Him. “If You are a Son of God, throw Yourself down from here; for it is written, He shall instruct His angels concerning You and they will protect You; And will hold You in their hands, For fear You should crush Your foot against a stone.” “Yet it has been said,” Jesus answered him You shall not try the Lord your God. The Devil having then completed every trial, departed from Him until another opportunity (Luke 4:9-13 ffb).”

One could only imagine the ‘personal interpretation’ that the lawless would give to these verses because they also deny the numerous truths found within them. Here we find Satan complete with special powers, another mention of angels, the very seedline prophecy twisted by our enemy, an additional claim to be God by Jesus, His use of the Mosaic Law and proof that Satan flees but can use every ‘opportunity’ to come back. We see that Lucifer ‘transports’ the Savior to the highest point of the temple to test whether or not Jesus was ‘a Son of God’ even though they’re both considered ‘Sons of Yahweh.’ He then attempts to twist scripture found way back in Psalm 91:11-12 that reads; “For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone” leaving out the very next verse that adds; “Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.”

Who is this dragon? Revelation 20:2 is just one verse that attributes this symbolic name to Satan himself. What’s all this talk about ‘dashing feet?’ Go back even further to the curse pronounced on the serpent in the Garden of Eden found in Genesis 3:15; “I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.” Indeed, the only thing that Jesus’ foot was to crush was the ‘false-rock’ of Lucifer’s head because “Death [Satan] is swallowed up in victory (1 Corinthians 15:54).” Before moving on to demons I feel another question is in order -- Who is to gain from the so-called teaching that there is not a literal Satan on earth as Jesus taught? Once again, only Satan and his children could benefit from such gobbledygook and exactly what does this teaching hurt?

(Demons:)

“Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it (Matthew 8:44).”

If one is to throw out angels and Satan then naturally fallen angels and the devil’s children are next to go. That book I mentioned a little bit earlier called Matthew 8:44 “the seedliners favorite New Testament proof-text” as if Jesus Christ Himself didn’t really say these words. The author then went on to explain away how ‘Yahshua (Yiddish for “blotted out”)’ didn’t really mean what he said and went on to say that we “can’t take the Bible literally” when both Yahweh and Jesus Himself said; “Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God (Matthew 4:4).” If our Savior spoke and taught something, we’d better listen to what he says as close as possible and keep our own personal ‘opinions’ to ourselves. Jesus plainly taught that Satan had physical children on earth and whoever attempts to question the Word Himself ought to in turn be questioned by Christians.

Jesus asked this; “O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things (Matthew 12:34)?” and “Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell (Matthew 23:33)?” John the Baptist also asked; “O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?” in both Matthew 3:7 and Luke 3:7. It is obvious from these four scripture references spoken towards men that there is ‘a generation [race] of vipers’ that are also considered ‘serpents.’ Who in their right mind could teach that these terms are “not meant to be taken literally” when both Jesus and John literally said them?

Turn with me to Matthew 23:35 and read the following words spoken to this same race of vipers; “Upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zechariah son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.” Here’s a key to where this race descended -- Cain. There was nobody else in the Garden of Eden to murder “righteous Abel” but Cain so he’s obviously ‘the firstborn’ of Satan’s brood and ‘a murderer from the beginning.’

“He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother’s righteous (1 John 3:8-12).”

Here we see that Abel is called ‘righteous’ just as Jesus taught and that he was murdered because Cain was evil in “the beginning.” Notice how the subject is “the children of the devil” and that we’re discussing “seed” or bloodlines? These passages also plainly teach that Cain “was [born] of that wicked one” and Jesus was sent to destroy his ‘works’ or else the Bible is lying. Frankly, I trust my Bible but I trust the words of Jesus Christ much more than it so let’s look at what He taught us about Satan’s children:

(Tares:)

Jesus had just finished teaching ‘the parable of the wheat and the tares’ and was asked by His disciples to explain its meaning in more detail. We’ll go ahead and read Matthew 13:37-43; “He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.”

How much clearer could Jesus have said it? It’s truly a testimony for our Lord’s teaching that he could explain this very parable after delivering it to the general masses and have it transcribed in our scriptures for all time yet people still refuse to read the details. Like the scribes and Pharisees of old, modern-day false prophets continue to add their own interpretations to ‘a parable already explained’ having even less of an excuse due to our New Testament. It’s sadly apparent that they really don’t “have ears to hear.”

Like in the previous passages, the subject is once again ‘seed’ and bloodlines so Jesus tells us that “the tares are the children of the wicked” and the “enemy that sowed them is the devil.” He also goes on to say that “the good seed” are born of the Son of Man who also happens to be “God manifest in the flesh.” I consider myself to be a child of Yahweh, do you? Not only do these very passages teach that Lucifer has literal children on earth but it’s an outright teaching against the so-called “rapture hypothesis.” If you go back and read the entire parable you’ll also notice that Satan’s bastard children are gathered from the world first and burned while ‘the righteous seed’ witness the event -- another proof that the rapture is an outright non-Biblical deception.

Christians who are familiar with the parable of the wheat and the tares are usually also familiar with ‘the parable of the seed and the sower’ accounted for in Luke 8:5-18 so I’ll just focus in on one group of seeds that were sown -- them by the way side. In Luke 8:5 it reads; “A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.” Jesus explained this parable as well and says “the seed is the word of God” and “those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.” Here we see another tactic of Satan and his children, they will try to take away the Word or attack the scriptures.

Hopefully by now you’re able to see how this weak ‘no-devil doctrine’ also creates a snowball effect with scriptures being tossed out left and right to support their claims. Before moving on to the final section of this evening’s study it’s time for another question -- Who is to gain from teaching against the clear-cut meaning of these two parables and that these ‘tares’ and this ‘generation of vipers’ are not Satan’s children as Jesus taught? Like usual, the answer is Satan and his children could be the only creatures that benefit from such perversions and exactly what does this teaching hurt?

(Words:)

“Now the Serpent was more impudent than any of the wild animals of the field which the Ever-Living God had made. So he asked the woman “Is it true that God has said, you may not eat of every tree of the Garden (Genesis 3:1 ffb)?”

It has already been established that Satan, or the serpent, twists the Word of Yahweh in order to push his own agenda. We have already briefly touched upon his pathetic endeavor at ‘tempting’ Jesus, how it was ‘a battle using scripture’ and his style is to “take away the word” from well-meaning Christians. We’ve also seen how these same children of the devil love to debate or attack the authority of ‘the oracles of Yahweh’ so you should be able to notice how these same false prophets use the same methods today. Anything from anti-King James sentiment to embracing corrupted ‘new translations’ or downright writing their own versions of the Bible, these serpentine men will seemingly stop at nothing to try and cast negative light on the Word itself. While we’re covering these verses keep in mind that any attack on the Word is an attack on Jesus Christ Himself because He is “the living Word (Revelation 19:13)” and He’s perfect, just like our beloved scriptures.

Before anyone labels me “King James Only” I’d like to point out that every denomination of modern Christianity has stemmed from the Textus Receptus and even with minor changes in some words meaning it’s the same script that the great Martin Luther used in 1545 for his German Bible. It’s also the same text that the Authorized King James Version was transliterated from in 1611 and is used to support every denomination. In time, these so-called scholars grow to believe they’re wiser than ‘the book of our faith’ and will release their own versions to support their personal doctrines. Perfect examples of this are the ‘New World Translation’ used by Jehovah’s Witnesses or the ‘New American Standard’ used by many Roman Catholics. Indeed, even homosexuals have their own so-called “Bible” but it’s certainly not the Word of Yahweh. The old adage that “any Bible is better than none” is an outright lie because not every book with ‘Bible’ in the title is the inspired Word and the pro-homosexual Zondervan Company even has plans to release their new ‘genderless’ edition of the scriptures this year to fill in the gaps that their altered ‘New International Version’ had missed. Are we to suppose that the Sons of God will be considered the “Whatever of God” and there’s no Heavenly Father anymore? In truth, I don’t preach the KJV-only pretext but I certainly will never quote from a ‘business Bible’ that earns our enemy money and more worldly power -- let’s not give heed to these seducing spirits and their many doctrines of devils.

(Mockers:)

“Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ (Jude 1:2-4).”

Here the ‘steady’ Judas Thaddaeus tells us that we should “contend [fight] for the faith delivered to the saints” and that there are “ungodly men who crept in [among us] unaware.” They present false doctrine and deny the only Lord God Jesus Christ and he then continues to add; “These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men’s persons in admiration because of advantage. But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts (Jude 1:16-18).” Let’s take a quick look at what Jesus said about these same mockers, shall we?

“Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name’s sake. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved (Matthew 24:4-13).” He also said; “Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man’s sake (Luke 6:22)” and “If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you (John 15:8).”

The fact of the matter is that in this day and age the primary tactic of false prophets is to laugh at those who teach or believe that there’s a literal Satan. This type of laughter is a weak form of mockery and if we’re to “contend for the faith” we will be hated by a majority of the world who has chosen to throw out the very teachings of the Bible -- Jesus is Yahweh, the Law is still in effect, the seedline truth, there’s literal children of Satan and on the long list goes. Many familiar with ‘the movement’ know that as a Faith we should always continue moving forward but not fall aside to doctrines that are foreign to the Word of God because Yahweh never changes. It’s a promise found in Malachi 3:6: “I am Yahweh, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.” I say thank goodness for that very fact.

(Intention:)

It’s my hope that I was able to convince you that there is a literal Satan who has his own children while arming you with enough scriptures to defend yourself against this anti-Christ teaching. While this could be considered one of my longest sermons to date in all honesty we’ve barely touched the tip of the iceberg on the many scriptural truths that support Lucifer’s existence. By showing you Jesus’ dealings with ‘the enemy of all righteousness’ I pray that you were able to see that the devil is not a man or just a “bad conscience.” By asking the questions I hope to show you who profits from such false claims. Without a strong knowledge of our enemy we have no way of equipping ourselves for war.

“Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand (Ephesians 6:11).” That armor, of course, is the Word of Yahweh -- let us claim it proudly without shame. Thanks to all who have written in your letters of encouragement and stopped by our forums, may the God of Israel keep us all from these strange doctrines of devils. It's my hope that you'll pray for this ministry and one another -- may Jesus always get the glory! Amen.

tactics of the lawless children: iniquitous men

This evening's topic is called Tactics of the Lawless Children and it's a sort of sequel to my longest sermon to date called Tactics of the Lawless One. Surprisingly, the first part was extremely well-received by those who read it so I launched a sort of small web campaign by posting links to the sermon in various forums and sometimes even pasting the entire twelve-page text itself for the public's scrutiny. Dealing with seedline, the children of the devil and so much more, Tactics of the Lawless One has been printed out by many internet readers and about the worst feedback I've received to date was a "this teaching is non-traditional" which is really a compliment.

Naturally, there's so much more material to cover so tonight I'd like to look at several Biblical "children of the wicked" and what exactly made them false prophets. From Cain and Balaam to Judas Iscariot and Simon Magus we'll be looking deeper into the characteristics that identified them as snakes. Peter tells us; "There were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you (2 Peter 2:1)" meaning that we'd better pay attention their tactics so we can better arm ourselves to withstand their "damnable heresies." Not each of these shoddy characters is a Biblical 'prophet' but their denial of the Lord does make them antichrist.

A quick glance at many 501(c)3 churchianity buildings should be proof enough that there's false prophets teaching "traditions of men" and sometimes worse. A semi-attentive study into the Bible should also be proof that their deceptive 'image' of an effeminized Jesus is not the God and Savior of the scriptures, rather a creature of their own making. In this day and age it doesn't pay to straddle the fence or listen to easy-believest 'reverends' who can't substantiate their claims without taking two verses and twisting them into something different. "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves (Matthew 7:15)."

(The Canine Connection:)

What list of Biblical 'bad guys' would be correct if it didn't start with Cain, the first murderer? 1 John 3:12 says that Cain "was of that wicked one" and he slew his brother "because his own works were evil" as apposed to righteous Abel's. Let's take a closer look at what made Cain kill Abel and see how he was exactly spawned from "the wicked [lawless] one" or Satan himself. This part of the study is essential because it ties into the particular "lawless children" or serpent's seed that I'm addressing in this sermon.

"Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from Yahweh. And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto Yahweh. And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And Yahweh had respect unto Abel and to his offering: But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

And Yahweh said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen? If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him (Genesis 4:1-7).”

Literally hundreds of studies have been published into these verses, The Problem With Genesis 4:1 by Clifton A. Emahiser could be considered ‘essential reading’ for any honest seedliner. Rather than break down the Hebrew and Greek-added words found in the manuscripts I’ll rather focus on what the Word says about Eve and her “beguilement.” Before doing so we should take notice that Eve “again” or continued (Strong’s #H3254) to bare Abel proving that he and Cain were ‘twins’ so they both bring their offerings “in [the] process of time” on the same exact day. Interesting is the fact that the word “tiller” used to describe Cain is taken from the Hebrew word ‘abad (pronounced aw-bad’) which means “a slave (Strong’s #H5647)” proving that Cain and his future seed would always be “slaves to the ground or earth.” Right from the beginning Yahweh has no respect for Cain nor his offering while “the keeper of the sheep” Abel is forever considered righteous.

A historical clue can be found in the non-canonized Protevangelion 10:1-10 (as rendered in The Lost Books of the Bible and the Forgotten Books of Eden); “When her sixth month was come, Joseph returned from his building houses abroad, which was his trade, and entering into the house, found the Virgin grown big: Then smiting upon his face, he said, With what face can I look up to the Lord my God? or, what shall I say concerning this young woman? For I received her a Virgin out of the temple of the Lord my God, and have not preserved her such! Who has thus deceived me? Who has committed this evil in my house, and seducing the Virgin from me, hath defiled her? Is not the history of Adam exactly accomplished in me? For in the very instant of his glory, the serpent came and found Eve alone, and seduced her. Just after the same manner it has happened to me. Then Joseph arising from the ground, called her, and said, O thou who hast been so much favored by God, why hast thou done this? Why hast thou thus debased thy soul, who wast educated in the Holy of Holies, and received thy food from the hand of angels? But she, with a flood of tears, replied, I am innocent, and have known no man.”

This aligns with Paul’s teaching in 2 Corinthians 11:3 which reads; “I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.” As I mentioned in Trees and Stars In The Garden of Yahweh, the word beguiled is taken from the Greek exapataō which plainly means “wholly (sexually) seduced.” Cain and his bastard clan are without a doubt ‘bad seeds’ both then and now.

(Doctrine of Balaam:)

An even less-known idiot from the Holy Bible is the counterfeit prophet Balaam who was murdered at the slaughter of Midian. Born in Mesopotamia and considered a full-scale soothsayer, Balaam’s false prophecies are mostly transcribed in the book of Numbers but he’s also mentioned several times in the New Testament as an eternal example of what not to follow:

Did You Know?

The Bible was the first book ever printed?

In 1454, Johannes Gutenberg invented the “type mold” print press and began to print the Bible.

Life Magazine called this the single most important event of the second millennium.

Jude says; “Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core (Jude 1:11).” Peter gives Christians a second witness in 2 Peter 2:15-16; “Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man’s voice forbad the madness of the prophet.”

Neither what Peter nor Jude has to say about Balaam is as important as the Words of Jesus Christ Himself who says; “I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication (Revelation 2:14).”

Recently, I’ve spoken about both Balaam and his ass in Jesus, God Or Not? and Tactics of the Lawless One and those familiar with the Jewish Babylonian ‘talmud’ might be aware that the name of Jesus is replaced by this very false prophet. For example, a half-hearted study into Sanhedrin 106b proves that the Jews teach the virgin Mary was a ‘whore’ and a quick glance at the footnotes will also show that “all the Balaam passages are anti-Christian in tendency [so] Balaam [is] being used as an alias for Jesus (Rabbi Freedman).” The ADL gives even further proof when they say “In the nineteenth century, when the field of academic Jewish studies was in its infancy, a small group of Jewish scholars suggested that in some cases the term Balaam in the Talmud may be a codeword for Jesus.” It’s no wonder the Creator Jesus Christ purposely calls out “the doctrine of Balaam” by name!

Here’s what happened -- the children of Israel were camping out in the plains of Moab near Jericho after they had just wiped out both the kings of Og and the Amorites. They had already been commanded by Yahweh to “Distress not the Moabites, neither contend with them in battle (Deuteronomy 2:9)” yet the current king of the Moabites named Balak “was sore afraid of the people, because they were many (Numbers 22:3).” So, he sends for Balaam ‘the son of Beor’ offering “the rewards of divination” and asks him “Come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and I may drive them out of the land (Numbers 22:6-7).”

Balaam accepts the offer from king Balak so Yahweh hurriedly tells him “Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed (Numbers 22:12).” Nevertheless, he still sets out the next morning in an attempt to curse the chosen people except “the angel of Yahweh stood in the way for an adversary [śāṭan] against him (Numbers 22:22).” The story of how Balaam’s ass gains the ability to speak is classic -- “Yahweh opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times (Numbers 22:28)?” A little while after this Balaam begins to “bless” the children of Israel while Joshua himself resists to “deliver” the chosen people (Joshua 24:10).”

What exactly is this ‘stumblingblock’ that Balaam cast before the Israelites?

Pay attention to what happens next and how yet another attack on Israel's race started; "And Israel abode in Shittim, and the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab. And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods. And Israel joined himself unto Baalpeor: and the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel. And Yahweh said unto Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before Yahweh against the sun, that the fierce anger of Yahweh may be turned away from Israel. And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto Baalpeor (Numbers 25:1-5)." Indeed, the same age-old attack of miscegenation and eventually serving other gods, in this case it was Baal-Peor.

Baal-Peor was the false god of the Moabites who was worshipped by his adherents in so-called temple 'orgies' where the illegitimate offspring were eventually sacrificed to him, much like Moloch. I won't call out any specific names but several modern-day cults that call upon the name of 'Jah-Bal-On' are also unaware that the 'Bal' part of that name is actually derived from this very same Baal-Peor. This deity is most often represented as both a male sun-god and a female moon-goddess and he was worshipped high atop Mount Peor, hence the fitting name 'Baal [lord of] Peor.' Because of this forbidden sexual activity David would eventually write; "They joined themselves also unto Baalpeor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead (Psalm 106:28)" and Hosea would add; "I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baalpeor, and separated themselves unto shame; and their abominations were according as they loved (Hosea 9:10)." All brought to you by the false prophet Balaam!

(Iscairiot the Traitor:)

Judas Iscairiot is quite arguably one of the better-known disciples of Jesus Christ due to the fact that he was a thieving snake who eventually betrayed our beloved Savior to the serpentine enemy. I have already covered numerous aspects about Judas in Calling of the Twelve which is more-or-less an overview on the twelve chosen men and their varying positions within the ministry. Iscairiot was actually the 'keeper of the treasury' meaning that he handled most of the funds but towards the end of his sad life he would betray Jesus for a mere thirty pieces of silver, the price of a common slave (Exodus 21:32). Truly, "the love of money is the root of all evil (1 Timothy 6:10)."

During a deeper study into Judas Iscairiot and his actions we can start to see major similarities between him and Satan. One such parallel has been already mentioned and it's the fact that Judas was 'keeper of the treasury' but he was also among the first group chosen by Jesus. Compare this to the fact that Lucifer was "the anointed cherub that covereth [the Law]" and was "perfect in [his] ways from the day that [he] was created, till iniquity was found in [him] (Ezekiel 28:14-15)." Also think upon how both Judas and Satan are chosen 'vessels of dishonor' used to bring about Yahweh's glory and perfect will on earth.

This shouldn't be very surprising because Luke 22:3-5 teaches us; "Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscairiot, being of the number of the twelve. And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them. And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.” To me, the most important thing to notice about the betrayal is that it came from a so-called ‘close friend’ of the Messiah in keeping with Biblical prophecies like “Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful (Proverbs 27:6)” and “Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me (Psalm 41:9).” Yes, these same verses are in reference to Judas Iscariot.

Jesus taught us; “a man’s foes shall be they of his own household (Matthew 10:36)” and this truth certainly rings true today. For example, this month alone I’ve witnessed the disbanding of the National Alliance from several of its founding members, the false wing of Aryan Nations headed by August Kreis turn against Christianity claiming that it’s a “ZOG concept” and the Christian Separatist Church Society claim to have “all truth” while condemning other followers of Jesus Christ. Brothers and sisters, how can we ever expect to overcome the tactical enemy when so much time is spent slinging mud at one another? I’ve actually partly addressed this very concept in our recent CPM Freestyle: Q&A broadcast, we certainly need unity!

During the last supper Jesus says; “He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born. Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said (Matthew 26:25).” He also taught us; “If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them. I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me (John 13:17-18).” As we can see Jesus Himself taught that it would’ve been better for Judas to have ‘never been born’ and that he was not ‘chosen’ by the Messiah. Ever wonder why this was?

For further clarity, I’d like to address a few aspects about Judas Iscariot. He was obviously a selfish man who cared less about the poor (John 12:4-8) and deceived those that he stole from, including Jesus Christ (Acts 1:17). He was also an steadfast unbeliever (Luke 22:1-6) that left himself open to satanic influence (Matthew 26:14-16) so towards the end of his life he engaged in bribery (Matthew 26:47-50) to forsake the Savior, someone that he ate and walked with and supposedly considered a friend. Many motion pictures like to portray Judas as just a confused man with overall good intentions that was really trying to ‘protect’ Jesus -- this is the exact opposite of his Biblical description. Judas Iscariot was a wicked person, period.

Unlike Satan, Judas did see the error of his ways before finally buying a section of land with a part of the thirty pieces and hanging himself there so violently “he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out (Matthew 27:5 & Acts 1:18).” In Matthew 27:3-4 it states; “Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.” Still, it was a bit too late by this time so we read in the very next verse; “He cast down [some of] the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.”

There’s a lesson to be learned by Christians in the example of Judas -- never betray Jesus Christ. That sounds like a rather simple concept but remember that the Bible says “Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Hebrews 3:15).” Jesus Himself said; “Ye shall be hated of all for my name’s sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved (Matthew 10:22 & Mark 13:13)” meaning that those walking in the truth -- and I mean Biblical truth, not the watered-down judeo ‘prosperity doctrine’ concept -- will without a doubt be hated of all. Saying that Jesus is God is a sure-fire way of heaping that hatred from our enemies on yourselves, give it a try!

(Simon, Magus, Simony:)

“There was a certain man called Simon, who before in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. And to him they had regard, because that for a long time he had bewitched them with sorceries. But when they believed Philip, preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women. Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done (Acts 8:9-13 wbs).”

Simon Magus was a sorcerer of great status and his morbid magical arts among the Samaritans was certainly well-known during the time of the Acts. As soon as phony Simon sees the apostle Philip baptizing other Christian believers he quickly decides that he wants a part of ‘the gift’ so he poses as a believer until he finds an opportunity to offer the early church money for the gift of the Holy Spirit. The modern-day negative term of “Simony,” as denoting the purchase for money of spiritual offices, is derived from him.

Let’s continue to read this gloomy account; “Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John: Who, when they had come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit: (For as yet he had fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles’ hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money, Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit (Acts 8:14-19 wbs).”

This Simon alongside the whore ‘living goddess’ Helena -- known as Salome to John the Immerser -- not only helped to found the bogus Gnostic sect, but he also through turn of events actually helped spawn the not-so-holy Roman Catholic church as we know it today. It’s not so strange that Simon Magus was worshipped in place of Yahweh as some type of a false god, the term ‘magus’ simply means “a worker of magic” and truly “there is no new thing under the sun (Ecclesiastes 1:9).” A decent self-study into the history of Simon Magus proves

Before finishing up this morning, let's see how Peter answers this chump; "Peter said to him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thy heart may be forgiven thee. For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity. Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me (Acts 8:20-24 wbs)."

Notice that even after Peter's stern rebuke Simon refuses to repent? What type of idiot would think that either the gift of the Holy Spirit or forgiveness of sins can be purchased with money or a simple chant like 'Hail Mary?' Jesus Himself condemned this type of practice when He said; "Moses said, Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death: But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition (Mark 7:10-13)." That word 'corban' means "an offering or present (Strong's #G2878)" and the practice still exists today in the false pagan catholic church.

(Intention:)

My intention with this morning's sermon, like Tactics of the Lawless One is to expose some of the tactics that "false brethren" can use against us at times during our walk with Jesus. Look for an upcoming Tactics of the Lawless Whores dealing with 'bad girls' of the Bible and done much in the same manner as today's study -- I pray that Jesus Christ gets the honor always! Amen.

tactics of the lawless whores: impious women

This evening's topic is called Tactics of the Lawless Whores and like usual we'll be taking a close look at several 'bad girls' of the Bible and how we can avoid their evil devices. Like both previous parts Tactics of the Lawless One and Tactics of the Lawless Children, I hope that this sermon will also give some extra insight into these wicked women so that we can further verify that "there is no new thing under the sun (Ecclesiastes 1:9)" and help us to "prove all things (1 Thessalonians 5:21)."

We've already covered several characteristics of a whorish woman in Solomon's Strange Wives. For example, "She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house (Proverbs 7:11-15)" and she also "increaseth the transgressors among men (Proverbs 23:28)." Indeed, "she hath cast down many wounded (Proverbs 7:26)" and a great number of once-honorable men have been ensnared by women with little virtue or sense throughout history -- Adam and Eve or Samson and Delilah might spring to mind.

1 Corinthians 10:6 teaches us that "these things [Bible stories] were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted" so a great deal of knowledge can be gleaned from these accounts "[to] keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words (Proverbs 7:5)." In this day and age, when the lawless children involved with the wicked media will use everything at their disposal to push their godless feminist agenda, Christian men and women need to choose their future mates with care because "Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the Yahweh (Proverbs 18:22)."

The Laws of Yahweh are extremely specific when dealing with 'loose women' or whores. For example; "Do not prostitute thy daughter, to cause her to be a whore; lest the land fall to whoredom, and the land become full of wickedness (Leviticus 19:29)" and "They shall not take a wife that is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God (Leviticus 21:7)." More straight-forward are the commands of "The daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire (Leviticus 21:9)" and "There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a sodomite of the sons of Israel. Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog, into the house of Yahweh thy God for any vow: for even both these are abomination unto Yahweh thy God (Deuteronomy 23:17-18)." Let's do it God's way.

Solomon tells us that "a whore is a deep ditch" in Proverbs 23:27 and Paul would later add that "no whoremonger hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God" in Ephesians 5:5 so whores and those who seek after them as 'whoremongers' need to be examined by well-meaning Christians, especially those who are still seeking their 'proper mates' from Yahweh.

The italics in the KJV prove that the translators were HONEST in their work?

They set the words in italics so we'd know they were not in the manuscripts they were using but no one has a copy of those original manuscripts today.

The first 'bad girl' of the Bible is Adam's own wife Eve, and while not a 'whore' in the same sense as Rahab or Jezebel, her unfaithfulness to her husband and Yahweh's Words single-handedly brought evil into the world through the seed of Cain. We're taught in 1 Timothy 2:13-15 that "Adam was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression. Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety." Notice the reference to childbearing?

Paul also teaches us "For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled [seduced] Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ (2 Corinthians 11:2-3)." Notice the reference to virginity?

I quoted the non-canonized Protevangelion in Tactics of the Lawless Children when discussing Cain but it's certainly worth repeating this evening because it gives us a hint as to what happened in the garden of Eden; "When her sixth month was come, Joseph returned from his building houses abroad, which was his trade, and entering into the house, found the Virgin grown big: Then smiting upon his face, he said, With what face can I look up to the Lord my God? or, what shall I say concerning this young woman? For I received her a Virgin out of the temple of the Lord my God, and have not preserved her such! Who has thus deceived me? Who has committed this evil in my house, and seducing the Virgin from me, hath defiled her? Is not the history of Adam exactly accomplished in me? For in the very instant of his glory, the serpent came and found Eve alone, and seduced her. Just after the same manner it has happened to me. Then Joseph arising from the ground, called her, and said, O thou who hast been so much favored by God, why hast thou done this? Why hast thou thus debased thy soul, who wast educated in the Holy of Holies, and received thy food from the hand of angels? But she, with a flood of tears, replied, I am innocent, and have known no man (Protevangelion 10:1-10 as translated in The Lost Books of the Bible)."

Indeed, Eve was found guilty by Yahweh of eating [partaking] of the the tree [race] of the knowledge of good and evil and 'cursed' her according to that specific sin by saying "I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children (Genesis 3:16)." That offspring was Cain "who was of [spawned from] that wicked one (1 John 3:12)" and not listed in Adam's genealogy as found in Genesis 5:3; "Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth [Replacement]." Rather than focus on what happened, let's instead look at how it happened. "Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which Yahweh God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die (Genesis 3:1-3)."

The thing to notice is that the serpent, or Satan (Revelation 20:2), was more 'subtle' than any beast of the field -- the deeper Bible student will have no problems making the analogy. Nonetheless, Satan says to Eve "Yea, hath God said" casting doubt on Yahweh's Word as is his favorite tactic to which Eve misquotes Yahweh's original words "Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die (Genesis 2:16-17)."

"And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons (Genesis 3:4-7)."

Not only does Lucifer twist Yahweh's Words by adding to them he uses his age-old tactic of offering the ability to 'be gods' and to 'know' good and evil. We've already discussed his tricks somewhat during Tactics of the Lawless One, this same maneuver can also be seen much later during the Gospels through his so-called 'temptation' of Christ. Nonetheless, we should notice that it was Eve who became 'seduced' by the serpent and it was her error that caused Adam to fall as well -- this is a re-occurring theme throughout most of the Old Testament narratives as we shall soon discover. The moral of Eve's story? Don't trust Satan.

(Rahab the Harlot:)

If there was any question about Eve's integrity, without a doubt Rahab was once a Canaanite whore. Her very name means "proud, roomy or wide (Strong's #H7342 & G4460)" but by her works she found justification under Yahweh's grace. For more information, we can read in James 2:25-26; "Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way? For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also."

A second witness is found in Hebrews 11:31 that says; "By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace." In these verses we not only learn that 'faith without works is dead' but that the ex-whore Rahab makes it to the so-called "Faith Hall of Fame" alongside such greats as Isaac, Jacob, Joseph and Moses due to her actions. Have you ever wonder why she was so blessed by God when several Old Testament writers even attribute her name to be equal to fallen Egypt as documented in Psalm 87:4 & 89:10 in addition to Isaiah 30:7 & 51:9? Here's a hint -- in Matthew 1:5 this same Rahab is listed in Joseph's seedline; "Salmon begat Booz of Rachab [Rahab]; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse."

In order to see what Rahab did right we must turn to the Biblical account itself; "Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there. And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel to search out the country. And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the country. And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were: And it came to pass about the time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whither the men went I wot not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them. But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof (Joshua 2:1-6).”

The first thing to notice is that the wise ‘war chief’ of Israel Joshua sent two spies into Jericho to case out the situation -- a war tactic that is still necessary to “be wise as serpents.” When the man-king came to question Rahab the harlot she straight-out lies to him protecting the Israelite spies hidden upon her rooftop and instead says that they had left the city of Jericho sending out a bogus ‘search party.’ This is certainly not the first time that someone was chosen to tell a lie to protect the chosen race, nor would it be the last. Those familiar with this particular story should also be aware that Rahab believed in Yahweh by saying “we have heard how Yahweh dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed (Joshua 2:10).” She goes on to make a pact with the two spies before letting them down by a cord through her window to safety. Later, during the taking of Jericho, Rahab and her family are spared because Yahweh says; “The city [Jericho] shall be accursed, it, and all that are therein, to Yahweh: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers that we sent (Joshua 6:17).” Faith is very important.

A deeper study into Rahab’s past will unearth some interesting tidbits of information. For example, the word used for harlot -- zanah (pronounced zaw-naw’) can also mean “innkeeper” meaning that it’s possibly just speculation that she even prostituted herself in the first place. There’s even a few books published on this subject proving that Rahab was actually from of the tribe of Ephraim but either way the fact still remains that she was blessed for lying to our enemy and was even made a partaker of the promises for her unwavering faith and for doing so. I’ll just say that “For many are called, but few chosen (Matthew 22:14).” The moral of Rahab’s story? Keep the Faith.

(The Murdering Jezebel:)

If there are any doubts in your mind about either Eve or Rahab, you’ll find few Christians that will debate whether or not Jezebel was a sneaky whore or not. This subtle dog not only had Naboth murdered for his vineyard but even planned to have Elijah slain before Jehu had her torn to pieces. Perhaps there is no name in all the scriptures that is as tainted as that of this idolatress and even in this day and age people are known to refer to a sluttish woman as a ‘Jezebel.’

Jezebel was married to king Ahab and the daughter of Ethbaal [‘ethba’al - “with Baal”] the king of the Zidonians so she continually moved the children of Israel to worship Baal throughout the books of 1st and 2nd Kings. The greatest aspect of Jezebel’s gloomy life is actually her death because Yahweh said about her;

“The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel (1 Kings 21:23)” and “the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her (2 Kings 9:10).”

Let's focus in on a few of Jezebel's tactics before I get to the amazing scriptures that narrate her death. Turn with me to 1 Kings, chapter 21 and we'll begin reading at the first chapter; “And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. And Ahab spake unto Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near unto my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or, if it seem good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money. And Naboth said to Ahab, Yahweh forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers unto thee (1 Kings 21:1-3).”

Here we read that king Ahab wanted Naboth's sacred vineyard so he could plant a garden of herbs. I briefly touched upon this in Herb For The Service Of Man -- it could've been to plant ganja in contrast to hard drink, but nonetheless Naboth refuses the king's offer. We should pay attention to what king Ahab does next because it's an age-old tactic -- he involves his bitch. We can see that Ahab is a spoiled rotten seed in the following few verses that explain exactly what happened.

“And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid him down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said unto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread? And he said unto her, Because I spake unto Naboth the Jezreelite, and said unto him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard (1 Kings 21:4-6).”

Waah! Poor Ahab couldn't sucker wise Naboth out of his vineyard so he cries to his wife Jezebel who takes matters into her own hands by soon forging 'letters' in her husband's name in order to murder Naboth and take his property anyway. Even worse is she commands that they set two 'sons of Belial' to bear false witness against him -- keep in mind that this entire matter is over a piece of property, my how times don't change! Right about now, one might be thinking about president Bush and her husband.

Anyway, let's read it for ourselves; “And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite. So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth. And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people: And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die (1 Kings 21:7-10).”

Those familiar with the account might recall that Jezebel succeeded in her mission to murder the innocent Jezreelite Naboth by stoning and not long after “when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead [he] rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite to take possession of it (1 Kings 21:16).” Birds of a feather flock together and “king” Ahab was about as honest as his whorish wife Jezebel. Now, let’s get to those bloody verses as I promised.

Turn with me to 2nd Kings, chapter 9 and we’ll begin reading on the 30th verse; “And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and tired her head, and looked out at a window. And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master? And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs. And he said, Throw her down.” Picture this, Jezebel is sitting high up in her window feeling all smug -- after all, her name in the Hebrew means “chaste (#H348)” -- and along rides the mighty Jehu who had a major reputation and great skill for slaying idol worshippers. Jehu simply yells out to the three nutless eunuchs to “Throw her down.” What do you suppose happens?

“So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trode her under foot. And when he was come in, he did eat and drink, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king’s daughter. And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of Yahweh, which he spake by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel: And the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel (2 Kings 9:33-37).”

The moral of Jezebel’s story? It never pays to be a whore or try to usurp authority over your husband -- just look at what happened to her! Surely when Jesus returns one wouldn’t want to be found as a mashed pile containing ‘a skull, two feet and a couple of palms’ now would they? Oh, let’s pray that our own daughters will never learn the way of the heathen and go whoring after their strange gods, the outcome is never a good one in the eyes of Yahweh!

(Delilah of Sorek:)

The final illustration for this section of the ‘Tactics Series’ will be Delilah, for what ‘bad girls’ Bible study would be worth its salt without looking at this double-crossing whore who betrayed the mighty Samson? The account is found in Judges 16:4-18 so please turn there now and we’ll look at how a colossal man can become a total fool when placed in the hands of a seductive and semi-attractive woman. This would be the section of this sermon that I’d ask the gentlemen to pay closest attention to.

It begins; “And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him: and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver. And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee (16:4-6).”

This is the first time Delilah asks Samson about the secret of his strength. Strangely, Samson resists giving this whore the real answer three times and instead tells her lies proving her a snake each time by her preceding actions. For sake of time we’ll skip those three tricks and rather focus on what caused Samson’s spirit to break and finally reveal the secret to this Philistine-mixing dog known as Delilah. The answer is in the 16th and 17th verses; “And it came to pass, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was vexed unto death; That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother’s womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any man.”

Game over! Samson becomes a blinded sacrifice to the bogus Philistine god Dagon but not before taking out a few dogs in the process and bringing down the temple by crushing the two middle pillars killing hundreds of pagan spectators. Good going! The moral of Delilah’s story? Never trust a woman that has been proven unfaithful over three times or one who constantly nags you.

(Intention:)

My intention with this study is to offer men some Biblical protection against loose women in the same manner that I’d hope the previous part Tactics of the Lawless Children would benefit both sexes. Like always, I pray that Jesus Christ gets the honor and these sermons may somehow help to establish His kingdom here on earth. Let us always stand strong against the enemy and may Yahweh’s perfect will be done in all things. Amen.
